

WHATS' NEW IN GILBERT'S DOWNTOWN HERITAGE DISTRICT

Gilbert's Heritage District continues to grow and evolve with the addition of many new venues. The Water Tower Park located on Page Avenue across from the Hale Theater was completed in 2009. The new Powerline Park located just north of Oregano's Restaurant opened last summer. Both parks are a great place to visit. In addition to the new parks, several new businesses have also entered the downtown.

- Tees & More specializes in custom embroidered polos, shirts, jackets, hats and more. Their showroom is located at 313 North Gilbert Road. They have been in business for 17 years and moved into the Heritage District in late 2008. Customers can visit the company web site at www.tees-and-more.com.
- Bergies Coffee Roast House opened in January of this year. They offer a variety of fine roasted coffees, smoothies and baked goods which can be enjoyed inside their store or on the outside patio. They roast their own coffee beans right on site. Bergie's is located just north of Joe's Real BBQ at 309 North Gilbert Road. They are open every day.
- Gallery 225 just opened in November and is the newest addition to the Heritage District. The building exterior and interior have been completely remodeled. Gallery 225 offers contemporary artesian crafts such as jewelry, glass, ceramics, and wood. This establishment is located at 225 North Gilbert Road - just south of Joe's Real BBQ. Gallery 225 is open daily. The web site is www.gallery225az.com.
- Old Town Antiques opened in August. The store features an interesting collection of antiques and contemporary home decor items in a unique setting. This store is located at 215 North Gilbert Road.
- Funkional Fitness opened in late 2008. This new and unique personal training studio offers personal training, nutrition orientation, power yoga, complete body assessment and more. Memberships are not required. It is located at 213 North Gilbert Road just north of the Heritage Court. For more information, visit their web site at www.funkfitness.com.
- 5th Estate Tattoos is located on the street level floor of the Heritage Court in Suite 113. They opened for business recently. They specialize in unique Tattoos. Appointments are not necessary.
- Liberty Market opened in the later part of 2008. This 1935 vintage grocery store was renovated into a restaurant offering market style dining. The menu offers wood fired pizza, salads, grilled sandwiches, scratch bakery items, full espresso bar, craft beer and wine. There is also a specialty food retail area. Liberty Market opens at 7am for breakfast every day. Breakfast, lunch and diner are served. To view the menu and learn more about Liberty Market, go to www.libertymarket.com.

Free parking is ample and is located just east of Gilbert Road. The Town of Gilbert continues to have an active interest in the re-development in the Heritage District. More new projects are coming on line in the near future.
