Article 2.9 Use Regulations

Sections

2.901 Purpose

2.902 Use Regulations

2.901 Purposes

The purposes of the Land Use Regulations Table established in this article is to

- A. Provide for single family residential, multi-family residential, commercial, office, employment, and public facility/institutional uses in appropriate locations.
- B. Ensure compatibility among land uses

2.902 Use Regulations

- A. Regulations. Table 2.902: Use Regulations sets forth the land use regulations for all zoning districts. The regulations for each district are established by letter designations as follows:
 - "P" designates permitted uses.
 - "L" designates uses that are permitted subject to certain limitations. Number designations refer to the limitations listed at the bottom of Table 2.902: Use Regulations.
 - "I" designates uses that are permitted only as incidental to the principal use of the property.
 - "T" designates uses that are permitted to be conducted for a temporary period of time. Time limitations are listed in Table 4.5012: Temporary Uses.
 - "A" designates uses that require an Administrative Use Permit pursuant to Article 5.4: Use Permits.
 - "U" designates uses that require a Conditional Use Permit pursuant to Article 5.4: Use Permits.
 - "S" designates uses that require a Special Use Permit pursuant to Article 5.4: Use Permits.
- B. Unlisted Uses. Uses are defined in Article 6.1: Use Definitions. If a proposed use is not listed in the Use Definitions, the Zoning Administrator shall determine if the proposed use is substantially similar to a permitted use; in that event, the Zoning Administrator shall assign the proposed use to a permitted use definition.

- C. Prohibited Uses. Uses not listed in Table 2.902: Use Regulations below or not assigned to a Use Definition pursuant to Section 2.902B: Unlisted Uses are prohibited.
- D. Additional Use Regulations. Additional use regulations are set forth in Sections 2.107, 2.205, 2.306, 2.405, 2.506, 2.606, 2.705, and 2.805: Additional Use Regulations.
