Gilbert Classical Academy is committed to developing students of impeccable character who embrace a passion for learning by gaining a solid foundation of knowledge through a rigorous, classical curriculum. Utilizing the Socratic method of instruction, students are empowered to think critically, work collaboratively, and prepare for lifelong learning. Our classical model is based on the Western Trivium which emphasizes the teaching of Grammar, Logic, and Rhetoric. Grammar is foundational in clear communication and emphasized in our classes including Latin, English, science, and history. As students shift to high school, they take a logic class which helps them realize what they know so they may begin to apply that knowledge. In the upper grades, students learn Rhetoric in English, Speech and Debate, Science, and Philosophy classes. The capstone project for our seniors is a year-long argumentative thesis project that they research, write, and defend before a panel of educators. Throughout the entire educational experience, fine arts and athletic competition are woven in to grow well-rounded students who are prepared for both the rigor of college and responsibility of citizenship. The positive peer pressure created from students sharing the goal of thriving in college engenders an accepting and encouraging learning atmosphere. Coupled with the Socratic method of learning, students and teachers spark conversations which often extend beyond lessons planned for the day.

Gilbert Arts Academy is an A-rated tuition-free, non-profit public charter school open to all students.

Within our small, student-focused environment, we proudly meet students where they are, providing the individualized support and resources to help each student catch up or move ahead. At every step along the way, we celebrate each student's growth and achievement.

We believe families play a vital role in a child's education. Because of this, our homework policy is designed to allow students to practice learned skills and develop good habits while still allowing most of their evenings to be spent with their family.

Gilbert Arts Academy is committed to a well-rounded education. Extra-curricular activities and after school clubs such as: Lego Club, Books Around the World, STEM Club, Karate, sports and more help students explore and expand their interests. Middle school students also have the opportunity to participate in our GAA NEWS Club, creating social media posts about school events and publishing our school year book.
